SWEEPSTAKES
GUIDE

Profile of Fanatical Sweepstaker Robert Hoffman, CA

Home State: California

How did you get started sweepstaking?

I got my driver's license in 1976 (a blessing and a curse) and began to learn the rules of the road. Back then I did learn, however, to spot sweepstakes and drawings at gas stations and other places. My first exciting win was 100 gallons of gasoline from a local "service" station. I could cruise the strip on Saturday nights for FREE! After, I began noticing the sweepstakes in the Sunday newspaper coupon section, entering them without any luck. When computers became more common I searched the internet and stumbled upon SWEEPSHEET® in about 1999. That was my turning point to WINNING!

What things have you won?

Like most sweepstakers that have been at this for a while, I have won many small prizes. I've won baseball caps for a team. Also, movie tickets and advance screenings passes to get to know the regular line sitters on a first name basis. I've won enough T-shirts to wear a different color each day of the month. Throw in some mouse pads and gym bags. I work pretty hard at this hobby. When it comes to sweepstaking, I try to stay somewhat organized (at least in this part of my life) and as a result, I've been about as fortunate as you can get! Winning one of the 4-C's are goals of many sweepers. I've won some of them, but trips and experiences are what I've come to really love winning! When sponsors spend so much time creating their products promotion, you can be sure that you'll have "the time of your life" when you're invited to attend!

Some of my wins include: gasoline for life, a 14-day Alaskan cruise, and a 10-day Mexican Riviera cruise. A few years ago, I won an unforgettable vacation and an actual chance to win $1 BILLION from Pepsi. I've won a trip to an all-inclusive resort in Jamaica from Wendy's, a trip to Switzerland from Ricola, and a trip to Atlanta to the Cooking Light Magazine's "Fit House." Arby's sent us to the Talladega Super Speedway where my wife Marilyn won another drawing for an autographed Jeff Gordon jacket. We got to see our local team, Oakland Raiders, get beaten up on a VIP trip to the Super Bowl in San Diego. Ocean Spray sent me to the "Palace" stadium where I was selected to shoot hoops at halftime for $100,000. I was only able to get the lay-up for $500 but what FUN! The San Francisco 49'ers and Staples chose my wife and I to attend the game sitting in leather recliners with TV & table service in the end zone! We truly had the best seats in the house! NFL and Valpak chose me to win flat screen TV's from their separate sweepstakes. In one single sweep I was lucky enough to win a Fisher & Paykel washer, dryer, dishwasher and double oven. Last summer I felt like a king when Six Flags told me to invite

"I compare sweepstaking to fishing which is supposed to be relaxing. Bait your hook, cast it out, and wait. You might catch a real whopper!"

Robert Hoffman, CA

100 people to their park for a private party. I got to invite a children's orphanage and local service organization. The 30 of them were thrilled!

Most recently Gillette sent me to a unique NASCAR trip with 9 other winners. We were paired with real NASCAR drivers that coached us while WE drove at speeds over 100 MPH. I mentioned the many sponsors by name because I truly appreciate what they do and really do use their products. I send thank you cards with photos and share my enthusiasm to show I'm grateful.

How much time do you spend?

I work 40 hours per week and also have young children. I usually get up before everyone else and also use my commute time on the train to address envelopes. It amounts to 1-3 hours per day for mail-ins and about 1-2 hours per day for online entries. If I get up earlier on weekends, that is more time.

How many entries do you send?

Each day I try to send 5 to 10 text messages, up to 100 online sweeps and 15-25 mail-in sweeps. My wife Marilyn, will drive on car trips. That lets me enter more and she doesn't get carsick from my driving. Either way, we are a great team!

Tips and Comments:

Stay organized! I fully prepare my entries and place them in my 6 months of expanding files. That way I just grab my daily mail. I also use hand printing services because I get bored writing my own NAZT. You'll be helping someone else out while saving time to address envelopes and add qualifiers. Most importantly, don't stress out about if, when, why, and how you will win a prize in 'XYZ' sweepstakes. Just enter, follow the rules, keep the phone on, check your email and mail and maybe they will notify you. Most likely they won't, I lose WAY MORE than I ever win! I compare sweepstaking to fishing which is supposed to be relaxing. Bait your hook, cast it out, and wait. You might catch a real whopper!

HOW TO STAY ORGANIZED

I've been saying for some time that one size does not fit all in sweepstaking anymore. There are so many facets to this hobby now that staying focused and organized becomes more important than ever. Gone are the days of not having any choices with just the option of entering mail sweeps that appear in the issue. At any one point in time there are over 2,000 current sweepstakes to enter between the SWEEP SHEET® newsletter and the www.sweepsheet.com website. That is a tremendous amount to manage with new ones being added and ending on a daily basis. Quite a few sweepstakes end at the quarter breaks and a sweeper may become stressed when the end of the quarter is approaching and there are hundreds of sweeps ending and there is a need to get entries in.

The key to staying organized is to develop good habits that will last for a long time. When the tasks become unmanageable and you find yourself stressing out thinking there are so many to enter with so little time it is easy to backslide into disorganization.

Here are a few thought to consider before you begin to reorganize your sweepstake habits. Most of these apply to mail-in entries.

- 1) What supplies do I need to have a place for?
- 2) Does it need to be at arms reach or can I store it for a later use?
- 3) How can I label my supplies for easy finding?
- 4) What am I doing now? Does it work or does it need to be revamped?
- 5) Can I organize my work in a way that will become a habit?
- 6) Do I separate mail-in entering from online entering? Have I developed an efficient way for rotating both methods?

Now that you have thought about the big picture lets drill down to the specifics. Here are some organizational tips for online entering:

1) Set up a separate account for entering sweepstakes. Try Yahoo or Hotmail to name a couple. Then you will not clutter up your personal email folder. You will also be more apt to opt in for the sponsors newsletters which is really what they ultimately want from you.

in-box

By Patti Osterheld

2) Set up folders for your sweepstakes. Use your favorites button or add to a My Yahoo page. The advantage of setting up a My Yahoo page is that you don't lose them if your computer crashes and you also can access them from anywhere, even when traveling because they are stored in cyberspace. Now when you are at a sweepstakes entry page that has daily or weekly entries, copy the URL in the address bar on top of that page, go to your My Yahoo bookmarks (keep My Yahoo open in a separate window while you are finding sweepstakes), and you'll see + ADD at the top. Click on that, it opens a box, and paste the URL in where it says ENTER URL in the top box. Below that it says ENTER TITLE of Bookmark. This title is displayed in your Bookmark list. Summarize the sweeps name, and also put the closing date. (If you want to add a Kraft daily entry sweep, just put in Kraft 30-Nov.). Hit SAVE and then click on My Yahoo on top left, and you'll go back to the main page and you can see what you saved. If you want to make separate folders for weekly or monthly, you can do that, and just save them to that folder. When you enter each day, right-click on each one and open it in a new window, so your My Yahoo page stays open. When sweeps expire, you can go into Manage Bookmarks and delete.

3) Use a form filler such as Roboform or Autofill. They are a time-saving tool that every online sweeper should use to enter sweepstakes quickly.

4) Use the same email address, login and password on all your entries, if possible. Keep a notebook or word document handy to store this information.

5) Allow pop-ups and accept cookies. Some sweeps pop up in your browser window and you need to be able to access them.

6) Use Google to tell you if you have won. Go to Google Alerts and set up an alert by adding the search terms: last name + winner + sweepstakes (put your last name in position). Select comprehensive, once-a-day searches and enter your email. Google will notify you if your name is posted on a website as a winner.

Good Luck and Good Organizing!!!

general rules

Unless otherwise indicated, the sweepstakes printed in SWEEP SHEET® are open to all legal U.S. residents, including military personnel. Those sweepstakes which are open only to U.S. citizens and those also open to residents of Canada will be noted. In most cases, the employees and the family members of the sponsor are not eligible to enter.

Some sweepstakes are also restricted to certain states, age groups, or occupations. Before you enter a sweepstakes, be sure to check the "NOTE" section to make sure you are eligible.

There is generally a limit of one prize per person or household. If the prize is a trip, and includes the use of a rental car, be aware you must be 25 or older and possess a valid credit card & driver's license to claim the car. A major credit card may be required at hotel check-in. Unless otherwise specified, winner and guest(s) must travel together on the same itinerary.

PICTURE YOURSELF WITH...

- 1) Wendy Timpany, IN stands in front of Harrod's in London - a shopper's dream. Matt and Wendy won the Bass Ale Destination London Sweepstakes, a Hot Flash that closed in March, 2009.
- 2) Laurie Griffith, MI shows off her Kia Borrego. It was an URL that ended in December, 2008. It makes for a nice addition to the family. Just shows that patience pays off!!!
- 3) Ann Powers, IL won a computer and her daughter poses in front of her Alienware Gaming Computer listed 6/20/09 as a Hot Flash. It was sponsored by PepsiCo.
- 4) Denise Stevens, GA won a Hot Flash sponsored by Sears Hometown Stores. The Kenmore Washer and Dryer was the first prize and she appears to like her win.

Common rules to follow.

- 1) Use plain, white, unlined papers and cards, making sure of the exact measurements.
  - 2) Unless the rules state "only one entry per person", you may enter as often as you like. Each entry must be in a separate envelope.
  - 3) Unless the word POSTCARD is used, be sure to insert your entries into envelopes. Metered mail may be rejected.
- ✓Checkmarks indicate the best bets for this issue.
