Profile of Fanatical Sweepstaker Sharon Ashmore, NC

Home State: North Carolina

How did you get started sweepstaking?

As a 13 year old kid, I saw a contest on TV for “Family of the Week”. I loved to write so I wrote in with a story about my family and I won. The TV station came to our house and did a short story on us and it aired on TV for two weeks. Besides being featured on TV, the prize included a trip to the mountains and we were the talk of the neighborhood. My mother was so surprised when she got the phone call that we won and that I nominated our family. I didn’t tell my mother that I had entered the contest. I didn’t start seriously sweeping until 1996. The mother of my son’s friend was a sweeper and shared her sweepstake stories of all the wonderful things she had won. I thought, “I can do that too”. I started sweeping and shortly therefore won a grand prize. It was a trip for four to the Orange Bowl at the Car Quest Bowl in Miami. We stayed at the Don Shula hotel and had limo to both Bowl games. Needless to say, I was hooked and have been sweeping consistently ever since. What a ride it has been (and a blessing)! Through the years, I’ve subscribed to several different newsletters, but always come back to SWEEP SHEET®.

What prizes have you won?

Some of my favorite wins include a spa trip to Utah, a Disney Trip for four, 2008 Ford Focus (I’m due for another car win), $10,000 savings bond, $10,000 cash, trip to Kansas City Royals game and husband had opportunity to win one million dollars (we didn’t win the million got but a $10,000 consolation prize – husband enjoyed being the halftime entertainment and said he’d do that again any weekend for $10,000). My mother got to carry the Olympic Torch through our city (thanks to Coke), a year’s supply of diapers and baby food (right before my 1st grandchild was born), several cruises, trip to Australia, trip to St. Thomas, $1,000 toward sports equipment to the school of my choice, meet and greets with Richard Petty, American Idol Stars and Luke Kuechly, lots of very useful gift cards, and soooo much more. It’s always a double win for me when I win something and get to share with family, friends or my community, especially when it helps someone else. One win allowed me to compete at half time for a Harley Motorcycle. I was blindfolded and had to crawl (on hands and knees) on the basketball court looking for a toy motorcycle. There were four of us and the first one to stumble onto the toy motorcycle won the Harley. I worked so hard to find that toy but didn’t win. The sponsor did give all 4 of us leather jackets, which my teenage son was thrilled with. I’ve also won a pair of motocross racing motorcycles. My husband and I sold them and didn’t tell our sons about them. We knew they would want us to keep them. (No Way) They were just too dangerous. At the end of each year, I go through all my win notices and am always amazed at what I’ve won.

“I think you create your own luck with effort, positive thinking, hard work, and making sure your name is in as many sweepstake drawings as possible. (and following the rules)”

How much time do you spend?

I have to admit that I spend a lot of time sweeping. Many years ago most of my time was spent on mail-ins but that has changed. I now mostly enter online or text. I don’t sleep well and am always up very early. I enter most of my sweeps from 5am to 7am each day. My sweeps are bookmarked on my computer and I use RoboForm (my best friend) to help speed my entering of sweeps. I always do a search on my email for ‘congratulations’ and ‘potential winner’ to make sure I don’t miss a potential win email. Each evening I enter sweeps through texting.

Tips AND Comments:

My biggest tip is to enter consistently and look for winnable sweeps. Local and restricted sweeps have greater odds of winning. If you enter and keep entering, you will win. I’m evidence of that. Use your resources to find new and unique sweeps. - i.e. SWEEP SHEET® newsletter and Conversation Corner, web sites (there are sooo many great ones). Check advertisements and flyers at your local grocery stores; join a club and always have your eyes and ears open for new sweeps. Enter as many ways as you can – drop boxes, Facebook (and other social media), mail-ins, online forms, text, game pieces, skill contests and the list goes on. I’ve recently started attending Twitter Parties and have won with them. People say I’m lucky but I think you create your own luck with effort, positive thinking, hard work, and making sure your name is in as many sweepstake drawings as possible. (and following the rules) We are all winners in sweepstakes and in life. It never hurts to dream BIG about what you want your next win to be. I have a sweeping bucket list... a few items on it... trip to the Galapagos Island, New BMW car, Trek vacation to somewhere exotic, etc. – and I’m constantly adding it to. Keep sweeping fun and always share your hobby with others. Of all the family members and friends I’ve shared my hobby with through the years, none have stuck with this hobby for more than a year or two. That is a great reason to join a club to connect with other sweepers that understand and appreciate the hobby. Every sweeper must attend/experience a National Convention. You will enjoy and be amazed at the prizes and the fun you will have and the wonderful people you will meet. Good Luck and Best Wishes to all...hoping all your dreams come true.

IT IS CONVENTION TIME

As you read this, 700 sweepers, including myself, are wrapping up the 27th Annual Sweepstakes Convention in Las Vegas, NV. I will post a recap in the next SWEEP SHEET® Inbox. Please consider going to a future convention. There is absolutely nothing like it. Spending 3-4 days with like minded people talking nonstop about sweepstakeing is a learning experience not to be missed if you enjoy this hobby. The amount of prizes to be won are mindboggling and you will make some lifetime friends.

Diane Daily, IN wrote this poem about the convention. I thought it was terrific and wanted to share it with all of my readers. Enjoy!

Sin City? Win City! Oh my Sweepstakes Convention At the end of July. Lots of new faces And old friends too Getting together To do what we do. Sharing a hobby That we love so well And staying in a fancy Vegas hotel. They'll be sessions and vendors And lots of winning. So much winning That your head will be spinning. The excitement is building As the time draws near And don't forget... we'll be cruising next year!

AND TO CHANGE THE SUBJECT.....

For those of you who do not read Conversation Corner on a regular basis please read this. Currently there is a scam going around where people are receiving an email telling them that they have won a Toyota Highlander from Reser's Foods.

in-box

By Patti Osterheld, Editor

DO NOT respond to this email:

"Congratulations on your winnings, Your email has been received as the GRAND PRIZE 2016 Toyota® Highlander® LE PLUS Winner of the RESERS FINE FOOD promotional sweepstakes. You are requested to provide your ID proof like driving licence or international passport photocopy ,Scan it and send it to us via email attachment immediately you receive this mail notification. See Attach for your confirmation Letter as the Grand Prize Winner. Download Attached File and view on a computer and follow the next step to receive your prize.

Best Regards Reser's Fine Foods, Inc. Beaverton, OR 97006."

I can't stress enough to read notifications like this carefully. Notice there is bad grammar and misspelled words. That should be your first red flag. Also, they would call you with a prize of that size and there would be an affidavit to have notarized. None of the above here. The Reser's website was hacked. Here is what Reser's has to say about the hacking:

"ATTENTION: The Reser's Toyota Highlander Sweepstakes winner was not to be drawn until September 10, 2016. If you are contacted by email or any other form of communication saying that you've won before this date, please delete immediately and do not reply or give any personal information. Our website has been hacked. The sweepstakes has been suspended in order to further investigate the issue and how it occurred. An update will be posted with more information as soon as it is available."

When in doubt call me or post your win notice on Conversation Corner. We have many smart readers who knew this was a scam right from the start.

general rules

Unless otherwise indicated, the sweepstakes printed in SWEEP SHEET® are open to all legal U.S. residents, including military personnel. Those sweepstakes which are open only to U.S. citizens and those also open to residents of Canada will be noted. In most cases, the employees and the family members of the sponsor are not eligible to enter.
Some sweepstakes are also restricted to certain states, age groups, or occupations. Before you enter a sweepstakes, be sure to check the “NOTE” section to make sure you are eligible.
There is generally a limit of one prize per person or household. If the prize is a trip, and includes the use of a rental car, be aware you must be 25 or older and possess a valid credit card & driver’s license to claim the car. A major credit card may be required at hotel check-in. Unless otherwise specified, winner and guest(s) must travel together on the same itinerary.

Common rules to follow.
1) Use plain, white, unlined papers and cards, making sure of the exact measurements.
2) Unless the rules state “only one entry per person”, you may enter as often as you like. Each entry must be in a separate envelope.
3) Unless the word POSTCARD is used, be sure to insert your entries into envelopes. Metered mail may be rejected.
